Alma Rosa Miller (Hernandez) 56, born July 28, 1969 in Los Angeles, California, wife of Vernon F. Miller, Jr., died September 6, 2025.

Alma was a pillar of love and an extraordinarily devoted wife, mother, grandmother, daughter, sister and friend who will be deeply missed. The joy of Alma's life was her family. Alma found joy in every aspect of her children's lives, especially, their school activities and was the perfect "sports" Mom. Never missing a football, basketball, volleyball, softball, and track and field game. She volunteered and worked with the school's committee raising funds for the athletic programs. Alma was the first to lend a helping hand, her warmth and generosity touching countless lives.

Alma worked specializing in adult learning with the Berkeley Reads Adult and Family Literacy Program. She traveled to Washington D.C. to passionately advocate for its continued support addressing Congress. She selflessly worked and cared for children with special needs. She volunteered at the food banks and food shelters handing out food during the height of Covid. Recently, Alma organized the donation of one hundred books to cancer surviving kids at Children's Hospital in Oakland, which was a testament to her enduring compassion. Alma was a gift from God with a generous and joyful spirit and has left a legacy of love with her family and friends.

Alma's presence brought love, light and laughter in every room. Her legacy will live on in the hearts of all who were blessed to know her.

Revelation 21:1–7

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. 2 And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. 3 And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Behold, the dwelling place [a] of God is with man. He will dwell with them, and they will be his people,[b] and God himself will be with them as their God. [c] 4 He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away." 5 And the One sitting on the throne said, "Behold, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true." 6 And he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give from the spring of the water of life without payment. 7 The one who overcomes will have this heritage, and I will be his God and he will be my son.

“ My beautiful Rose. A gift from God and the best baby sister anyone could have. You were the life of the party! We had a profound closeness and understanding expressed with just a glance, a smile or a stare that was indescribable. We prayed for each other and shared our faith with unwavering resolve knowing our Lord ultimately sustains us.

I am not saying goodbye to you because I will see you again. We always embraced and kissed each other on the cheek saying our “I love you,” which sustained us until we saw each other again. Your time here with us has concluded for now but you live within our hearts and memories, and we are so thankful to God for the gift of you. I will continue to tell you how much I love you in my prayers and in my thoughts. The precious memories of you will live within me and your family forever.

It is our hope and belief in Christ Jesus that an eternal life awaits us, and we will be together again, so until then, I will miss you every day, my beautiful Rose.
