Tony lived his life full of faith, love and happiness with his high school sweetheart and wife of 38 years and their beautiful children. He enjoyed spending time is unforgettable.

Tony was an avid music lover and an unbelievably talented drummer. He played in countless groups and with many influential people from the humble beginnings of Gun Shygh, to touring with Joey Fender and the 55's across the United States, and playing locally with his son in Outta-Kontrol. He shared his life, talents and time with so many people bringing the music and our hearts to life. He is and will be deeply missed but his beat lives on in all of us.
