“ Sharing just one memory of my amazong grandma is just so hard. She was there for every major thing that happened in my life. From flour fights while baking cookies to trying to teach her more makeup skills. And finding weird things at the flea market. I spent so much of my childhood and adulthood with her and I am so grateful that she spent as much time with my duaghter as she did. I love you grandma. -Victoria

Booth, Barbara June Smith passed away peacefully on December 26, 2021 surrounded by her loved ones.
Born in Oklahoma in 1942 to Wiley and Ray Smith, Barbara was one of 10 children. She is survived by her brother, Donald, and sisters Charlene and Edna.
Barbara was a fiercely dedicated and loyal mother to her three children, Gregory, Kirk and Kathryn as well as a huge influence on the raising of her three grandchildren Victoria, Brend and Ryan. She is also guidance, love and light she provided for us.

Barbara spent her retirement years with her faithful companion and best friend
