

Brigido Vargas

September 27, 1936 - August 7, 2023

Brigido Vargas Jr., (87), of Fairfield, California, lost his bout with cancer and passed away on August 7, 2023, surrounded by friends and family.

Brigido, fondly known as Joe (or for those really close to him Tingga), was born to Brigido Sr. and Alejandra, on September 27, 1936, in Pampanga, Philippines. He was a well-traveled, funny, very loving and a very caring person that enjoyed spending time with friends and family, especially his grandchildren. Brigido joined the military in his early age and found himself working for the Department of Defense and the Merchant Marines and later worked for and retired from United Airlines after serving with them for close to two decades.

Brigido is survived by his wife Carmenita and three adult children Brian, Barry and Billy and by his four wonderful grandchildren Sophie, Chloe, Lilly and Mateo. He is also survived, by his brother, Felix Vargas and by his sister Victoria Guevarra.

Aside from his love and adoration for all his friends and his family, Brigido really enjoyed participating in the California lottery, hanging out with all his grandchildren, being outside of the house; whether it is going on a walk, visiting with family or just doing things like crossword puzzles or working/playing in the yard with his grandson. Brigido really enjoyed the simple things in life and it always brought him joy, not to mention he was also the family comic, he just loved to make people around him laugh.

Brigido's family will host two consecutive viewings on Thursday, August 31, 2023 starting at 4:00p.m. And on Friday, September 1, 2023 starting at 4:00 p.m. The service will be at Fairfield Funeral Home in Fairfield, CA.
