

Dennis Edward Clemente

January 20, 1947 - May 8, 2024

In Loving Memory: Dennis Edward Clemente (1947-2024) Dennis died peacefully surrounded by his family at the age of 77. Dennis was born in Vallejo, California, the oldest child of Ed and Ruby Clemente. He was a loving father and husband. Though Dennis' beloved wife, Diana Clemente, preceded him in death, her memory remained a guiding light in his life. Together, they shared a bond that transcended time and space, a testament to 50 years of marriage and the enduring power of love.

He is survived by his siblings Richard Clemente, Sheri Thomas, Terry, Karen Gist (Charlie), and David. He leaves behind his two children, Steven Clemente (Muriel Clemente) and Scott Clemente, three grandchildren, Dameco Clemente, Robert Meadows II, and Anthony Clemente, and his great-grandchild Kamia Meadows. He served in the U.S. Army during the Vietnam War. He was also inspirational in helping many vets receive their much-deserved VA benefits. Dennis was also a Vallejo Police Officer Reserve in the 70's and 80's. As we bid farewell to a remarkable man, let us take solace in knowing that his legacy will forever be etched in our memories. Rest in peace, dear Dennis, knowing that your spirit will continue to shine bright in the hearts of all who were blessed to know you. In loving memory, rest in eternal peace.
