

Ernesto Lumauan Lagundi

April 25, 1951 - November 12, 2020

Ernesto Lumauan Lagundi, an electrical engineer for 42 years, passed away suddenly but peacefully in his sleep on November 12, 2020 at the age of 69.

Ernesto is survived by his wife, Victoria Lagundi, his children Emily Lagundi Glogovac and Ernest Vaughn Lagundi, his brother Rudolfo Lagundi, his sisters Adona Humm, Milagros Edlagan, and Maria Corazon Malana.

Ernesto was born and raised in Tanza, Tuguegarao, Cagayan, Philippines on April 25, 1951 to Anastacio and Francisca Lagundi. He graduated from Feati University on May 26, 1979 with a Bachelors Degree of Science in Electrical Engineering. He then served in the United States Army from 1979-1980. The start of his engineering career began with an electrical engineering firm in San Francisco, CA. On February 6, 1978, he married Victoria, whom he shared 42 years of marriage until his passing.

Ernesto lived a simple life. He was a devoted husband and father. He was dedicated to his profession and continued to work even through his retirement. He was a big sports fan and cheered for the Warriors, Giants and 49ers.

A closed viewing is scheduled for Thursday, November 12, 2020. Flowers, donations and condolences may be offered at 5303 Collect Lane, Fairfield CA 94534.
