

Gerald Wagner

December 25, 2022

Gerald Wagner, 94 died peacefully on December 25 in Fairfield surrounded by his son Gary (Emily), his grandsons Garrett and Bobby, his great grandson Gavin and his beloved dog Penny. He lived a full life exactly the way he wanted. He lived in Fairfield since 1963 and raised his family with his wife Dorothy (preceded in death in 1995) and his two sons Gary and Michael (preceded him in death 1976). Gerald was a loving and caring person. He had a life long career in the Air Force, retiring from Travis AFB in 1972. Upon retiring, he took a position with Syar Industries and retired a second time in 1990. He loved his community, Fairfield and up until weeks before his death he could be found having a deli sandwich in downtown. He leaves behind his son, Gary and wife Emily, his grandson Garrett and great grandson Gavin Wagner. He also leaves behind his grandson Bobby and his wife Jennifer, great grandson Michael, great granddaughter Sierra and his granddaughter Lyann Wagner who lives in Arizona.

Tribute Wall

JH

“ So sorry to hear of Jerry's death. Seems like I have known him all of my life through my parents. My parents were long time friends of him and Dorthy. We met up with them several times over the years.

Jim Herb - February 27, 2024 at 11:03 PM

GW

“ Gerald Wagner, 94 died peacefully on December 25 in Fairfield surrounded by his son Gary (Emily), his grandsons Garrett and Bobby, his great grandson Gavin and his beloved dog Penny. He lived a full life exactly the way he wanted. He lived in Fairfield since 1963 and raised his family with his wife Dorothy (preceded in death in 1995) and his two sons Gary and Michael (preceded him in death 1976). Gerald was a loving and caring person. He had a life long career in the Air Force, retiring from Travis AFB in 1972. Upon retiring, he took a position with Syar Industries and retired a second time in 1990. He loved his community, Fairfield and up until weeks before his death he could be found having a deli sandwich in downtown. He leaves behind his son, Gary and wife Emily, his grandson Garrett and great grandson Gavin Wagner. He also leaves behind his grandson Bob and his wife Jennifer, great grandson Michael, great granddaughter Siera and his granddaughter Lyann Wagner who live in Arizona.

Gary Wagner - January 14, 2023 at 11:46 AM