“ Henry was one of the most soulful and kind persons I've known, to my good fortune. His humor, humility and empathy were some of his most endearing characteristics, and that smile could light up a room. He blended a comprehensive knowledge of both theology and depth psychology that was unique, to say the least. He was not only a dedicated priest but a teacher, spiritual director and psychologist. He was a loyal friend who was always uplifting to be around. He will be missed. Michael Vonnegut

I pray you're in Biblical Heaven with the Saints! Now, you're among them, Fr. I'm beyond infinitely proud of you! Other than Saint Mickey and Saint David Marie Knight, you're my real Dad. Isn't every ordained priest our Dad? I pray for every priest and nun's canonization

“ Fr. Hank was very much a blessing to me, and a steady guide when I needed it. Rest in peace, Hank. Sleep in heavenly peace.

“ I am saddened to see Fr. Hank's notice of passing. We spent many good times together at the Perry home, my second family, and he was always someone that I could relate to and talk with. A good kind man and someone that I had the privilege of knowing. May the angels lead him into paradise.
