

Horace Franklin

January 15, 1946 - January 24, 2024

Horace Franklin Jr, 78, of Fairfield California, peacefully passed away on January 24, 2024.

Born in 1946 in Baton Rouge, Louisiana to Horace James Franklin and Tular Whitaker, Horace moved with his family to California where he would complete High School and enlist in the Marine Corps. While in the Marine Corps, Horace would meet Denise Marie Franklin whom he would marry in January 1973 and go on to have five children, Roderick Eugene Franklin, Kevin Maurice Franklin, Carla Denise Franklin (Deceased), Horace Franklin III, and Clarence Harold Franklin. Horace transitioned to the U.S. Army after six years in the Marine Corps and would go on to complete an exemplary career of service, rising to the rank of First Sergeant before retiring in 1992.

In retirement, Horace worked various security jobs, but his true passion was information technology. He established a technical support services website where he could connect to and assist users having computer issues.

Horace was predeceased by his father Horace Sr, his stepfather Bishop Clarence Williams, his daughter Carla Denise Franklin, his brothers Harold Franklin, Douglas Williams, Preamus Williams, Tony Williams, and his sister Georgia Franklin. He is survived by his sons Roderick Eugene Franklin, Kevin Maurice Franklin, Horace Franklin III, and Clarence Harold Franklin, his mother Tular Williams, his brothers Noel Franklin and Michael Williams, and his sisters Marcel Williams, Glenda Harris Dickens, Theresa Scott, Deloris Williams, and Velora Savage.
