

Jason Santos Atoigue Jr

May 22, 1980 - November 23, 2025

Jason Santos Atoigue Jr., born on May 22, 1980, in Fairfield, California, gained his angel wings on November 23, 2025. His family later settled in Vacaville, where Jason graduated from Will C. Wood High School before continuing his education and earning an Associate's Degree in Computer Science. He went on to devote 18 years of hard work and dedication as an electrician at the Richmond Chevron Refinery.

Jason was a devoted and loving husband, father, brother, and son. He carried wisdom well beyond his years and held deep pride in both his family and his island roots. Known for his generous heart, he helped anyone and everyone he could, always making time for a word of encouragement, a listening ear, or one of his unforgettable hugs. His kindness was steady, his presence comforting, and his love for those around him unwavering.

Jason is preceded in death by his father, Joaquin Santos Atoigue Jr. He is survived by his loving wife of 20 years, Marlene; their children Alexander, Kailee (Justin), Aryana, and Aithan; his mother, Sandra; and his sisters, Leanne (Stephen) and Alicia. His legacy lives on in each of them, in the memories he created, and in the love he shared so generously.

Viewing services will be held on Friday, December 12, 2025, at 11:00 a.m. at the Fairfield Funeral Home. A Celebration of Life will follow immediately at the Atoigue residence.

Jason's light will forever remain in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.
