

Jerome Pangelina

January 24, 1964 - February 21, 2025

Jerome Pangelina, 61, peacefully passed away at home on February 21, 2025, with his wife, Kathy, by his side after a courageous battle with cancer.

While cancer may have won the fight, Jerome won at life. No matter how unfair this world has been, he never complained or questioned why. A man of unwavering faith, he accepted his path with grace and strength.

Jerome was born on January 24, 1964 to Robert and Christina Pangelina in Richmond, Ca. He loved fishing with his brothers, spoiling his grandchildren, hanging out with his daughters and trips to Reno with his wife. He loved pulling out his tools and fixing problems around his house and for his neighbors.

In his final days, he found comfort in prayer and singing with his wife. His favorite song was "I Surrender" by Hillsong Worship.

A verse chosen by his daughter Jessica: "Fathers encourage and comfort their children." (1 Thessalonians 2:11–12)

"For you know that we dealt with each of you as a father deals with his own children, encouraging, comforting, and urging you to live lives worthy of God, who calls you into his kingdom and glory."

When we faced challenges, he encouraged us. When we were hurting, he comforted us. Through his actions, he showed us what it meant to live a life guided by faith.

His strength and perseverance in the face of adversity, while maintaining his faith, will forever be a reminder to remain hopeful and faithful, no matter what life brings.

Jerome is survived by his loving wife, Kathy; his daughters, Amanda and Jessica; his son-in-law, Emanuel; his stepdaughters, Amber and Crystal; his son-in-law, Nate; and his cherished grandchildren, Anthony, Christina, Colton, Clayton, Abigail, and Grant. He is also survived by his many beloved siblings of the Pangelina family.

Memorial services will be held on Thursday, March 20, 2025 at 11:00 am at Northgate Church in Benicia, California.
