“What a sweet, loving and smart lady! So blessed to call her my friend for 15 yrs. We met at the Fairfield Senior Center Bridge group. She and Mort fast became friends. Mort and I made many slams together. Loved that twinkle in his eyes when he knew we were going to make our bid. Johanna was devastated when he passed, but managed to carry on with courage and dignity. Loved hearing her stories of her life with him, especially how they met. There was not a prejudiced bone in her body. She loved and respected my husband and always told me what a good man he was. Will defiantly miss her calling me a spring chicken! I’m “only” 72. She used to get a kick when people thought we were mother/daughter. My fondest wish is that I helped make the last year of her life, and particularly the last few weeks, less painful. Johanna, I will be thinking of and praying for you today and always. Miss you my friend. Will visit you tomorrow with Hydrangeas and Lilacs! ❤️🙏🏻☐
