

Pauline Homewood Rosales

December 26, 1955 - December 26, 2020

Pauline Rosales —

December 26, 1955 — December 26, 2020

Pauline “Paula” Rosales, 65, of Fairfield, California, passed away on Dec. 26, 2020. Paula was born in Renton, England on December 26, 1955.

Paula grew up in England and worked in retail prior to emigrating to the United States in 1984.

She continued her career in retail first as the manager of Designer Pets, a local pet store in Fairfield and then she owned her own pet store with her loving husband Joe Rosales. They ran that pet store for some years before closing it. She loved animals of all kinds and always had her faithful dogs and her cats by her side.

Paula was happiest being at home taking care of her animals and gardening.

She kept her husband busy making sure she had plenty of flower pots and special areas in the yard where she could garden. Paula participated in local organizations helping women recover from their issues regarding substance abuse and had many women that she helped over the years that had recovered.

Her mother and brother came from England to visit and she enjoyed showing them her home here in Fairfield and places in California.

She is survived by her husband Joseph Rosales, her Aunt Margaret of Florence, OR and her two brothers and one sister: Andrew, Brian and Annette. She was loved by her family and will be deeply missed.

Tribute Wall

SN

“ My name is Suzan.

In 1991 I had the pleasure staying at Paulas house and working together with her for some time, when I came to Fairfield, California wuih my two daughters. I di have some pictures of her at our apartment we shared for a little. Paula was so much fun to be together wihh, a hard worker, at auctions, and at a retail store, for Judy and her husband, in Suisun City at that time. I am so very sorry to find out, Paula is no longer with you and her family and friends.

Sincerely Suzan from Germany

Suzan Giselle Niederwöhrmann - August 02, 2022 at 09:13 PM