

Pearl Helen Childs

September 27, 1942 - April 15, 2026

Pearl Helen Ingram was born on September 27, 1942, to Delbert Ingram and Leora Reed Ingram. She was the second eldest child in her family, growing up alongside her brother, Delbert Lawrence Ingram, and her two sisters, Lola Ingram-Hodges, and Diane Ingram-Woo.

Pearl was someone who moved through life with complete momentum: if she loved something, she really loved it. Shopping wasn't an errand—it was an event. And everyone around her knew resistance was futile. She could turn a conversation with a perfect stranger into a meaningful relationship. That says a lot more than “she was friendly.” Some people can make small talk. Pearl could make connection happen. There's a real difference between chatting with strangers and leaving them feeling seen, remembered, and somehow part of their world. Turning a conversation with a perfect stranger into a meaningful relationship suggests she had that rare mix of curiosity, warmth, and fearlessness. She didn't treat people as passing moments she treated them as potential stories worth knowing. That kind of gift changes rooms. Our beloved mother, grandmother, sister, auntie, and friend may be gone, but will never be forgotten.

Pearl Childs is survived by her children: Lowanna Newell-Bishop, Pamela Ingram, Cynthia Marshall (Ralph), Eskew Childs, and Reginald Hodges (Trina). Grandchildren:

Guillaume Newell, Christopher
Greenwood, RaJonne Mitchell, Mercial Sullivan, Kayliana Childs, Tarrance
Childs, Eskew Childs II, and Deanna Pearl Childs, her brother, Delbert Ingram, and her two sisters, Lola Hodges, and Diane
Woo. In addition, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, in-laws, and dear friends.
