

Peter Escobedo

May 7, 1952 - March 26, 2026

Peter Rudolph Escobedo

May 7, 1952 – March 26, 2026

Born in Brush, Colorado.

Served honorably for eight years of active duty in the U.S. Air Force, which included twelve months at Eareckson Air Station (formerly Shemya Air Force Base) in Alaska's Aleutian Islands.

Forty-four years of civil service at Travis Air Force Base.

Served nineteen years as Pastor of The Rock of Salvation Outreach Ministry from 1982-2001.

Baptized Eastern Orthodox in 2026.

His Patron Saint is St. Porphyrios of Kavsokalyvia.

He is survived by his wife Leti and their children Adria and Peter.

His daughters Celeste and Julia.

His grandchildren Adaya, Savannah, Sierra and Zachary.

His mother Dora Mae Cooke. Siblings Linda, Leo, Jess, Robert, and Ginger. He is preceded in departure by his dad Leo Escobedo Sr. and his sister Sally Escobedo-Gour.

He was an avid reader. He loved movies, music, and playing the guitar. He wrote many songs and poems and had encyclopedic knowledge of music and the Bible. Family and friends would endearingly refer to him as the “bible answer man.”

Bob Dylan’s song, “Gotta Serve Somebody” from his 1979 album “Slow Train Coming” was particularly meaningful to Pastor Pete. It was pivotal in bringing him to the Lord.

He and his wife Leti were passionate about helping people, feeding and housing those in need.

“True love never ends, it lasts even beyond death.” - St. Porphyrios

“ I've know pastor Pete since I was a kid. I remember him playing in the band and preaching at the church. Even after he stopped preaching we'd visit from time to time. Good man in many ways. He showed love to my family and saw the good in me even when times were dark. He was funny and his smile was awesome. Ever since I was a kid, his smile had so much energy it'd make me smile just seeing it. Pastor Pete made me feel like family, and we were. I'm going to miss him. May God have mercy on him.
