After graduating with a degree in Economics he started his first job as a Management Trainee with a prestigious Bank in Southern California kickstarting a 39 year career in Banking. Victor retired in 2013.

While attending high school Victor was in the Roosevelt High School band. He played the trumpet. During his working years he never forgot to give back to his community. He was a volunteer teacher of trumpet at the Los Angeles Music and Art School in Los Angeles. Always encouraging his students to embrace the beauty of music. After relocating to Northern California he volunteered hours to the Boy Scouts. Shortly after his retirement in 2013 he pursued Art as a hobby. He joined an art class to learn to draw scenery and portraits. Victor made very good friends with members of the Art group who continued to keep in touch after the COVID shutdown.

He is survived by his wife Dolores. They were married 58 years.
